282 Give Blood At Signal Depot

TOBYHANNA SIGNAL DEPOT employees gave 282 pints of blood to the Red Cross Blood Bank yesterday. It was the third time the mobile unit has visited the depot. Other Blood Bank visits there were made in February and July of 1954. Depot employees donated 363 pints during those two visits.

Actually 310 depot employees registered yesterday to give blood. Out of this total, however, 28 were rejected by Blood Bank technicians.

Turnpike Bill To Be Considered 'Without Fail'

HARRISBURG, May 31 (AP)—Rep. Albert S. Reading, House Democratic leader, said tonight the House will consider two bills authorizing turnpike extensions tomorrow "without fail."

The bi-partisan measures, for a Stroudsburg-Sharon cross-state leg and a connecting link with the West Virginia super-highway, have been in position for final legislative approval since May 9.

Dick Haymes Wins Fight To Stay In U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—Dick Haymes, Rita Hayworth's singing husband, today won a U. S. District Court fight to avoid being deported.

Judge Burnita S. Matthews ruled that he was not subject to deportation because of a flying trip he made to Hawaii in the spring of 1953 to keep a singing engagement and court Miss Hayworth. He married the film star later.

The Immigration Service claimed that in returning from Hawaii Haymes re-entered the United States "from a foreign port or place or from an outlying possession." Since Haymes is also an alien ineligible for American citizenship, the service ruled he was subject to deportation. When a deportation order was issued last November, Haymes appealed to the District Court.

Haymes, a citizen of Argentina, was admitted to the United States for permanent residence in 1937. Asst. U. S. Atty. Frank Strickler told the court Haymes became ineligible for citizenship after he claimed the status of a neutral in World War II and did not serve in the U. S. armed forces.

Tractor Upsets; Nominee Killed

LEBANON, May 31 (AP)—A Democratic nominee for Lebanon County commissioner was crushed to death when a tractor he was operating overturned at his farm near here.

The body of Daniel H. Glinrich, 53, was found under the tractor by a friend who had gone in search of the political leader and road building firm executive last night.

Fred Heilman was led to the site of the accident by Glinrich's German Shepherd dog, Toby.

Four Killed When Plane Crashes

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 31 (AP)—A Cessna airplane crashed into the rugged mountain side of Laurel Ridge last night during a thunderstorm, carrying three men and a woman to their deaths.

Tod Burhans, deputy coroner of Fayette County, tentatively identified the victims as Floyd E. Giegan, of Hanover, Pa.; Mrs. Jean H. Giegan, believed to be his wife; Roy E. Lambert, of Taneytown, Md.; and Glen C. Bream, of Gettysburg, Pa., believed to be the owner of the plane.

Bear Sighted Near Parked Automobile

ANOTHER BEAR was sighted last Saturday night in Monroe County.

According to Arthur Dunlap Jr., Paradise Falls, a visitor to his home last Saturday night went out to get into his car and found a bear.

The visitor was Charles Jumper, Dunlap said. Jumper left Dunlap's house on land owned by the Lutheran Association — at about 11 p.m.

As he neared the road where his car was parked, another car came along the highway.

In the sweep of the second car's headlights, Jumper saw the bear leaning against his car door, Dunlap said. The bear left a short time later.

Dunlap has no sheep on his farm home; thinks the bear must be after strawberries in his garden.

Leader Signs Bill Renewing Gasoline Tax

HARRISBURG, May 31 (AP)—Gov. Leader tonight approved renewal of the gasoline tax at its five cents a gallon rate just a few hours before it would have expired at midnight.

The legislation to continue the two-cent a gallon "temporary" portion of the levy—the remaining three cents is on a permanent basis—was signed by the governor more than four months after it was introduced.

At stake was 96 million dollars in revenue devoted exclusively to road purposes.

The gasoline tax became law for another two years just as the commonwealth's two-year fiscal period ended with no immediate prospects of action on the governor's classified income tax program.

The deadline for re-enactment of 1 per cent real estate transfer tax, yielding 28 millions every two years, expired tonight. But a retroactive clause was expected to prevent any cut in collections.

The income levy, designed to raise 411 million dollars, is the cornerstone to the commonwealth's proposed budget of one billion, 800 million dollars for the 1955-57 biennium starting tomorrow.

The Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce today described the governor's tax program as "unjust in its classifications, discriminatory and inequitable."

Opposes Income Levy

The chamber said it believes that the sales tax should be continued and should be raised in rate and coverage.

The business group hinted it would support a 3 per cent sales levy.

U. S. Flying Freed Pilots To Hawaii

Reunion With Relatives Due On Thursday

HONOLULU, May 31 (AP)—Four happy U. S. fighter pilots, freed from Red China's prisons after two years, winged from Hong Kong today toward Hawaii and a reunion with excited relatives.

The Pacific Air Force, mapping a red carpet reception, estimated their big sleek plane would set down at Hickam Air Force Base at 2 a. m. Wednesday (7 a. m. EST.).

They'll get the usual medical checkups and then await their families, who will be flying across the United States. The relatives are expected Thursday. The fliers will stay here five days.

Discard Red Uniforms

The four are traveling aboard the Bataan, the C54 transport which once was the personal plane of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

They crossed the border into the British colony of Hong Kong about noon today, Hong Kong time. They discarded the Red Chinese prison uniforms, rested a few hours and took off on the 5,537-mile trip to Honolulu.

"How does it feel to be back?" shouted a newsmen, 1 of 70 who jammed around the aircraft just before its departure.

"Great. It's wonderful!" the fliers chorused.

Their spirits were high, their physical condition seemed satisfactory, and, according to U. S. officials, there was no evidence that any of them had been brainwashed.

Charge Invasion

The four men, all shot down in the Korean war and convicted of "intruding" into Manchuria in "wanton invasion of Chinese territory," are:

Capt. Harold Fischer Jr., 28, Sweet City, Iowa; 1st Lt. Lyle Cameron, Lincoln, Neb.; Lt. Col. Edwin Heller, 36, Wynnewood, Pa.; and 1st Lt. Roland W. Parks, 24, Omaha, Neb.

Heller, injured when he bailed out of his Sabre Jet, walked with a limp. He said he had four operations on his left leg and spent much time in a hospital where Chinese doctors made bone grafts. A U. S. medical officer here said the leg appeared to have healed well.

Before questions were cut off by U. S. officers stationed here, Heller, as spokesman, said the four were amazed to be the first of the U. S. prisoners in China to be released.

Dag, Nehru Thanked

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles sent messages to U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and Prime Minister Nehru of India thanking them for their help in obtaining the Americans' release.

Hammarskjöld has been negotiating with the Peiping regime for months to free these 4 and 11 other American fliers, members of a bomber crew, jailed by the Chinese Communists. Nehru's special envoy, V. K. Krishna Menon, who recently returned from conferences in Peiping, was first to announce that they were being let out.

Bomber Crash Kills Four Men

SIEVEPORT, La., May 31 (AP)—A B47 Stratofort bomber crashed seconds after it took off today from Barksdale Air Force Base, killing four crewmen, including three flight officers.

Witnesses said the big bomber made a normal takeoff and leveled off at about 500 feet for several seconds before it suddenly banked sharply to the right and plunged to the ground nose first.

Barksdale officials identified the victims as Maj. William H. Perkins, 35, Decatur, Ill., commander of the plane; Lt. Col. J. P. Rasor, 37, San Antonio, Tex., pilot; Maj. Robert West, 38, Chico, Calif., observer; and A-2C Richard C. Lolly, 22, Huntingdon, Pa., crew chief.

Legislators Ask Traffic Study

HARRISBURG, May 31 (AP)—The Legislature was asked tonight to initiate an investigation of traffic safety in Pennsylvania.

Two Democrats and two Republicans introduced a resolution in the House seeking to have the Joint State Government Commission, research arm of the Legislature, make the study and draft legislation to carry out its findings and recommendations. The commission would report to the next session of the General Assembly.

Berserk Man Kills Three

DAYTON, Ohio, May 31 (AP)—For no apparent reason — but with deadly results — a 47-year-old man today killed three persons and wounded four others in two centrally located Dayton banks.

He died from bullet wounds almost three hours later as he babbled incoherent, religious-sounding phrases.

"God's message on Dec. 23" was the reply Richard Meyers gave to city detectives who sought the motive for his mid-morning shooting spree in the Third National and Winters Banks. They said he apparently had no intention of robbing the banks.

Other than his name and age, police had no clues concerning the man who killed two prominent Daytonians, George Sawaya and Joseph Gavin, and a woman bank employee, Mrs. Frieda Cramer, after he walked into a bank and began blazing away with a .45 caliber automatic.

Judge Watson Succeeded By John W. Murphy

SCRANTON, Pa., May 31 (AP)—Chief Judge Albert L. Watson retired from the U. S. Middle District Court today and Judge John W. Murphy was sworn in as chief judge to succeed him. At the same time Judge Frederick V. Folmer, of Milton, formally took over his duties as a jurist in the middle district. He had been serving as a "roving" judge.

Judge Watson, who is 79, plans to take life easy at his home in Clark's Summit. He had been on the U. S. bench over 25 years. Judge Murphy is a resident of Scranton.

Unemployment Claims Decline

HARRISBURG, May 31 (AP)—The State Dept. of Labor and Industry reported today that new claims for unemployment insurance benefits dropped 16 per cent in the week ending May 20 from the previous week's total.

He Finds Presidency Fascinating, Doesn't Care For Politics In 'Derogatory' Sense

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—President Eisenhower today described his 28 months in the White House as "fascinating and intriguing—as a wonderful experience."

But he said he doesn't care much for politics in the "derogatory" sense of the word.

The President's comments which he voiced with some emphasis at a news conference, set off fresh speculation about his plans for 1956. He gave no solid clue, but his remarks did add up to:

1. A throwdown of speculation that distaste for the presidency, or at least some aspects of it, might cause him to turn down renomination. Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said in a weekend speech that the office routine apparently is "irksome" to the President.

2. A strengthened belief that Vice President Nixon again will be his running mate if the Chief Executive runs again. Eisenhower declared the top candidate on the

President Says First Phase Of Vaccination Program To Be Finished By August

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the first phase of the antipolio campaign—double inoculation of all first and second graders—"certainly" will be completed before the infantile paralysis season reaches its peak in August.

Enough Salk vaccine will be manufactured within the next 30 days to do the job, he announced at his news conference.

Within 60 days, the President added, he has the assurance of Surgeon Gen. Leonard Scheele that both the first and second shots for city dwellers in the highest priority group will be administered.

The immunization procedure calls for three shots, the first two given fairly close together and the third after an interval of about seven months.

Release Due Soon

In a statement issued soon after his conference, Eisenhower said developments in the campaign during the last week have been "both eventful and encouraging." He referred to the agreement on revised safety standards reached by U. S. Public Health Service authorities and the six drug companies licensed to make the Salk vaccine.

"The surgeon general of the Public Health Service tells me that it is hoped to release some vaccine within a few days," the President said.

He acknowledged there have been delays in the program since it was launched early in April.

"But remember," he said, "we are dealing in this field with the lives of our children and our grandchildren."

New Knowledge

"Because of scientific work that was done during that delay science has learned new things about the way viruses behave in large scale manufacture and about the way we should make vaccine."

The latest Public Health Service report, issued Saturday, showed that 113 children had come down with polio after receiving their first inoculations. There have been five deaths.

Eisenhower reported more than 5½ million children have been vaccinated so far—including one of my grandchildren, a first grader. This is David Eisenhower, 7, who lives with his parents, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower.

ticket must have a man of his choice running with him, and he went out of his way to praise Nixon's work.

The President's meeting with newsmen ranged from politics to polio vaccine to world affairs—including his forthcoming meeting with British, French and Soviet leaders.

He stressed one thing: He does not expect final agreement on any major differences to be reached at this first "at the summit" parley. And he doesn't plan to take along Sen. George (D-Ga), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, or other congressional figures. He added that and George agree fully on this point.

The President began the news conference by announcing he will go to San Francisco June 20 and make an address of welcome to the United Nations 10th anniversary observance. Soberly, he said it would be well for all Americans to review the record of U. N. "accomplishment and failure"—to "fix in our minds again what are our hopes and expectations."

Eisenhower said he has reports from various sources that the Chinese Communists intended — or said they intended—their release of four American airmen as a gesture toward easing tension. He said he himself wants to look further into the Reds' motives and won't risk a "hit or miss guess."

And he said he has no word "at the moment" about chances of the Communist Chinese releasing the other Americans still held.

As to world events, Eisenhower showed no great perturbation over the recently disclosed progress the Russians have made in long range jet bombers. He said he's not planning any immediate rise in U. S. spending for aircraft. This country has a "very good" bomber of its own, the B36, he said, and has stepped up production of the bigger, newer B52 jet bomber.

School Issue In Hands Of Lower Courts

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—The Supreme Court today handed state and local officials first responsibility for finding ways to end all racial segregation in public schools "as soon as practicable."

The court fixed no deadline and ordered no specific national procedure for the historic and delicate task.

But it directed federal district courts to see that the process starts promptly and continues with reasonable speed, giving full weight to varying local conditions and obstacles.

Interpretation Varies

Reaction to the unanimous ruling was almost startlingly diverse. Southern foes of racially mixed schools said the decision meant an almost indefinite delay in integration. Negro leaders said the decision paved the way for largely wiping out segregation by 1966.

So both sides generally found satisfaction in the ruling—because of miles-apart interpretations to its effects.

One result could be a multitude of new court tests on whether local officials are carrying out the general principles laid down by the high tribunal.

Legal Action

Both Negro leaders and some Southern officials spoke of county-by-county legal action in some states.

The long-awaited decision dealt with how best to implement the high court's unanimous ruling of almost exactly one year ago that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

It put all the emphasis on local action to meet local problems, refusing requests by Negro attorneys for a clear-cut decree to end all school segregation by September, 1956, at the latest. The Eisenhower administration had suggested that local school boards be given 90 days to submit plans for ending segregation.

Varied Problems

Chief Justice Warren read the five-page decision to a hushed court chamber. A complete end to segregation, he said, presents "varied local school problems." Local school authorities, he continued, thus have "the primary responsibility" for solving the problems.

The role of the courts, he went on, is to decide whether local authorities are proceeding to end segregation "in good faith." Federal district courts, "because of their proximity to local conditions and the possible need for further hearings . . . can best perform this judicial appraisal."

Ford, Union Struggle To Avert Strike

DETROIT, May 31 (AP)—Negotiators for the Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers cloaked themselves in secrecy today and dug in for what appeared to be unusually long and earnest contract talks.

Over them hung a serious threat of a strike of 140,000 Ford employees, little more than 24 hours away.

In the midst of today's tense session the company and union issued a joint announcement of a "24-hour moratorium on any public discussion of matters being considered at the bargaining table."

They added that the news blackout "may be extended by mutual agreement."

Workers Await Word

Thus, there was a possibility that the Ford workers themselves in 83 plants and parts depots across the nation may not know until shortly before the deadline whether they will be called out on strike.

The UAW has sanctioned strike action anytime after Wednesday midnight. It has not set an absolute deadline. But union leaders have indicated that a walkout will not be delayed unless they feel chances are good for a quick settlement.

From what came out before the secrecy lid was clamped on, it appeared that the company and union were far apart.

Lions Seek To Step Up Enthusiasm

STROUDSBURG LIONS closed the "Town Season" of meetings last night with a dinner session at the Penn-Stroud, Vice President Cy Katz presiding in the absence of President Ed Driebe. During the meeting Ed Katz made a substantial donation to the Lions Foundation Fund, giving the total amount of a cash award that had been made to him.

The next session of the club will be at the new YMCA next week. On Wednesday, June 15, Bill Hannas announced the meeting will take the form of a square dance party at Schneider's Willow Dell. The next meeting will be at Frank MacNamara's Gap View Inn and the last session for June will be at Bill Cassatt's Bartonville Hotel.

Emerson Rahn reported that he and the members of the Lions Memorial Committee had placed floral tributes on the graves of all deceased members, 14 in all.

There was no entertainment program and Katz suggested that the members take the time in bringing up any matter that might be considered for the good of the club.

Greater Interest Urged
T. Manning Curtis responded saying that he thought a definite lack lay in the esprit-de-corps of the club and that ways should be devised to make each meeting more interesting. He pointed out the grave lack of "music participation" in the meetings and said that, if arranged in advance, musical programs could be prepared and would prove popular.

Rev. Luther E. Markin said that the music suggestion was a good one and that stories also should be featured. He said perhaps these could be made ideal by a little consideration in advance.

Elton Hall said that more varied lines of public service would help build the club, adding that hard work on important projects would cause interest to flame. He added that, of course, in keeping with Lions International requirements these should be of some good to underprivileged people.

Other Suggestions
Joe Kovarik supported the Curtis suggestion and added that if Lionism in the Stroudsburg is to continue, let alone flourish, the members must find joy and interest in the club sessions.

Rev. Markin suggested that each member ask himself if he had found any reason for writing to friends and telling of "rousing, de-

Lightning Fires Cottage; Owner Drives To Fire House, Calls Aid With Truck Siren

SUNDAY NIGHT'S electric-windstorm caused a lot of trouble for Ed Schneider at Willow Dell House—but it could have been worse.

Lightning hit a utility pole near the resort. Hot wires, knocked from the pole, apparently fed power back into a corner of one of the cottages at Willow Dell.

Schneider saw the sparks and smoke. He tried his telephone to call the Marshalls Creek Fire Dept. No telephone.

Schneider climbed in his car. He began driving toward Marshalls Creek. All the lights were off in houses and business places along the highway. At Mountain Lake House he saw the lights were on.

He stopped at the resort inn. After a talk with C. Elwood Huffman, owner of Mountain Lake House, the two men hopped in a car, drove to the fire house.

They opened the fire house, began operating a siren on one of the fire trucks. Men who live in Marshalls Creek answered the call. From then on, the few phones that were still in working order, went into mass operation.

Firemen got to Willow Dell in time to hold damages down "below $100," according to company Chief Ralph Miller. Nothing but the corner of the cottage was damaged.

Marshalls Creek company had two other fire calls recently, Miller reported. One was at 12:45 p.m. Sunday at David Duke's, a resort near Marshalls Creek, where firemen were called to put out a dump fire. The other occurred at 12:55 p.m. Friday at Laurel Court where a leaky gas tank on a truck was apparently ignited by a spark. The fire was out when firemen got there.

He was arrested by Stroudsburg State police.

Civil Defense To Set Up Program For June 15 Alert

THE CIVIL DEFENSE Planning Committee will meet in Court Room No. 2, Monroe County Courthouse, at 7:30 tonight.

The meeting is for zone and township directors and key personnel. One of the principal items for discussion will be the alert scheduled for June 15.

A program will be worked out to cover the needs for the alert, which will be national in scope, and a program for Civil Defense activities during the Summer.

All branches of C. D. should be represented, according to Paul J. Crown, county executive director.

A radio communications code class will be held at 7:30 tonight in C. D. headquarters room of the courthouse. This class is to teach radio code to beginners and also for more advanced operators who want to improve their code efficiency.

Tonight's session is the first in a series of meetings to be held every Wednesday. Ernest Transue, chief radio officer of county C. D., will be in charge.

In the past five years, Americans have bought more than two electric appliances for each man, woman and child in the country.

Meeting Changed

PORTLAND—Edward Gunther, president of the Alumni Association of the former Portland High School, announced yesterday that the executive board meeting originally scheduled for Friday night has been changed to Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

Tuberculosis Not Fully Conquered, County Society Told

Speaker Notes Disease Rate Still High

AS OF THIS moment the conquest of tuberculosis is close, but too much of an illusion has been created, especially by the "wonder drugs," so that while the mortality rate of the disease is down the morbidity rate shows no signs of decreasing.

This was basically the message brought to officers, directors and guests representing 18 health, welfare and municipal bodies at last night's 35th anniversary meeting of the Monroe County Tuberculosis & Health Society. The speaker was Dr. Katherine R. Bucot, professor of preventive medicine and public health at Women's Medical College, Philadelphia.

Dr. Bucot, with Arthur M. Dewees, former executive director of the Pennsylvania Health & Tuberculosis Society were the principal speakers at the local TB Society's anniversary dinner meeting at Glen Brook Country Club.

Dr. Bucot first praised the local society for adopting a sound program in public health, then making a budget rather than letting the budget dictate the program of public health.

Conquest Possible

She noted that while the meeting was one to celebrate an anniversary, that celebration had nothing to do with the conquest of TB. The conquest, Dr. Bucot said, lies within the realm of possibility.

One of the factors which confuses not only the laymen, but professional people, is the drop in mortality rate so that TB has been "crowded down the line because it is not a leader in the way of deaths," Dr. Bucot explained.

Too many volunteer and official agencies labor under the illusion created by a slackening death rate, she noted, in the face of a high morbidity rate for TB. Even the "miracle" drugs with all their dramatic and thrilling experiences are in addition responsible for the illusion that TB is conquered, Dr. Bucot said.

Threatening Factor

A few years ago the consumptive was under a certain death sentence, but miracle drugs have eliminated much of that certainty. But, in these cases where excavation of the lung occurs, the patient feels fine, but is still a positive case of TB, because of excavation, Dr. Bucot explained. As such these people, although their sputum may be negative, present a threatening TB factor to the community. The patient, she noted, and many others, cannot grasp that in such cases he has a hole in his lung.

The confusion which arises in such cases of negative sputum where lung excavation exists, must be answered by continued effort, especially research, Dr. Bucot advised.

Dr. Bucot said the local TB Society's installation of an X-ray machine in General Hospital is the finest source of case finding, not only for TB but other pathologies of the chest. Her experience, she said, shows lung excavation in older white men, seldom caught in normal X-ray programs.

Dr. Bucot said the programs against obesity are not good factors in general health improvement at all times, for often dieting leaves the patient susceptible to TB and other diseases.

Must Emphasize Threat

The speaker said a searching study of what is being done to meet the illusions about TB is required, including a check with physicians to be sure the potentials of TB are kept before them constantly — "to emphasize it's a disease right there with the rest of them."

Mr. Dewees traced his association with the state society back in 1918 and the visit he made here to help form the local society. That first visit was in 1919. Since that time, he said, TB societies have grown into the largest, single volunteer health organization and the most powerful in the cause for public health in the nation.

He presented a distinguished service award to Mrs. W. R. Levering, a director for 35 years, former secretary, and representative and director with the state society for ten years.

H. G. Heller, president, conducted the meeting and welcomed all the directors, officers and guests. Mrs. Bruce Fleming, executive secretary, introduced Dr. Bucot and Mr. Dewees.

Guests Introduced

Mr. Heller introduced Mrs. Wirt D. Miller, a guest and one of the founders of the organization and County Commissioner Amzi F. Altomose. Commissioners provide quarters for the TB society, as past boards have done for years.

Dr. Paul Shiffer filed with the group an accurate report on X-rays of hospital admissions on the TB Society X-ray machine. There were 463 admissions X-rayed, 26 pre-natal cases, 228 senior students.

In this total three active cases of tuberculosis were found and two growths. In all five cases the patient was unaware of their existence and in all cases proper steps have been taken to meet the pathology found.

Represented at the meeting were Pennsylvania, Lackawanna, Wyoming Valley and Eastern Northampton Health & TB Societies;

Court To Rule On Control Act

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to pass on constitutionality of the law under which the Communist party has been ordered to register as a tool of Moscow.

The party had asked the Supreme Court to overturn a ruling of the U. S. Court of Appeals here, which held in a 2-1 decision that the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act is constitutional.

The high court made no decision at all on the legality of the act, which was written by the late Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.). Instead, it granted the party the right to present oral argument before the court in support of its claim of unconstitutionality.

Fire Damages Former School At Wooddale

WOODDALE — A small frame building, once used as a school building for Price Township, was extensively damaged by fire yesterday morning.

Reports indicate a Bell Telephone repairman passing along the Wooddale road noticed the fire and smoke and sent in an alarm.

Both the Northern Stroud Fire Department and Marshalls Creek responded. They saved the building from complete destruction, but flames destroyed most of the contents and severely damaged a portion of the exterior.

The property is owned by Emerson Meyers, Philadelphia and is used during the summer, holiday week-ends and during the fall season.

Fire department officials said the place was occupied over the Memorial Day holiday week-end. Cause of the fire was not determined.

We should all be prepared when the time comes — make your selection of a suitable Memorial now!

for this wide-open beauty

It's the new kind of hardtop—

The 4-Door Riviera!

THERE seems to be some confusion about what a hardtop really is, and we'd like to set the matter straight.

A hardtop is a car that looks like a Convertible with the top up—but has a solid steel roof overhead—and no center posts in the side window areas.

Up until just recently, it could be built in volume only with two doors—not more—because it would take wholly new structural principles to hinge another set of doors without floor-to-roof center posts.

But Buick came up with those new structural principles and is now building—in volume—hardtops with four doors.

You see one pictured here. It's the 4-Door Riviera. And it's taking the country by storm . . .

Because here, at long last, is an automobile with the sleek and sporty styling of a true hardtop—but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers, plus the added room of a full-size Buick Sedan.

On top of that, this beauty is all Buick—with the buoyant ride of Buick's all-coil springing—the wallowing might of Buick's record-high V8 power—the whip-quick getaway and sizable gas savings of Buick's spectacular Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

And it's available in Buick's two lowest-priced Series—the budget-tagged 188-hp SPECIAL and the high-performance 236-hp CENTURY, illustrated here.

Come visit us for a first-hand meeting with the 4-Door Riviera—and see how quickly and how easily the last word in automobiles can be yours.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Lions Seek To Step Up Enthusiasm

STROUDSBURG LIONS closed the "Town Season" of meetings last night with a dinner session at the Penn-Stroud, Vice President Cy Katz presiding in the absence of President Ed Driebe. During the meeting Ed Katz made a substantial donation to the Lions Foundation Fund, giving the total amount of a cash award that had been made to him.

The next session of the club will be at the new YMCA next week. On Wednesday, June 15, Bill Hannas announced the meeting will take the form of a square dance party at Schneider's Willow Dell. The next meeting will be at Frank MacNamara's Gap View Inn and the last session for June will be at Bill Cassatt's Bartonville Hotel.

Emerson Rahn reported that he and the members of the Lions' Memorial Committee had placed floral tributes on the graves of all deceased members, 14 in all.

There was no entertainment program and Katz suggested that the members take the time in bringing up any matter that might be considered for the good of the club.

Greater Interest Urged
T. Manning Curtis responded saying that he thought a definite lack lay in the esprit-de-corps of the club and that ways should be devised to make each meeting more interesting. He pointed out the grave lack of "music participation" in the meetings and said that, if arranged in advance, musical programs could be prepared and would prove popular.

Rev. Luther E. Markin said that the music suggestion was a good one and that stories also should be featured. He said perhaps these could be made ideal by a little consideration in advance.

Elton Hall said that more varied lines of public service would help build the club, adding that hard work on important projects would cause interest to flame. He added that, of course, in keeping with Lions International requirements these should be of some good to underprivileged people.

Other Suggestions
Joe Kovarik supported the Curtis suggestion and added that if Lionism in the Stroudsburgs is to continue, let alone flourish, the members must find joy and interest in the club sessions.

Rev. Markin suggested that each member ask himself if he had found any reason for writing to friends and telling of "rousing, de-

Lightning Fires Cottage; Owner Drives To Fire House, Calls Aid With Truck Siren

SUNDAY NIGHT'S electric-windstorm caused a lot of trouble for Ed Schneider at Willow Dell House—but it could have been worse.

Lightning hit a utility pole near the resort. Hot wires, knocked from the pole, apparently led power back into a corner of one of the cottages at Willow Dell.

Schneider saw the sparks and smoke. He tried his telephone to call the Marshalls Creek Fire Dept. No telephone.

Schneider climbed in his car. He began driving toward Marshall's Creek. All the lights were off in houses and business places along the highway. At Mountain Lake House he saw the lights were on.

He stopped at the resort inn. After a talk with C. Elwood Huffman, owner of Mountain Lake House, the two men hopped in a car, drove to the fire house.

They opened the fire house, began operating a siren on one of the fire trucks. Men who live in Marshalls Creek answered the call. From then on, the few phones that were still in working order, went into mass operation.

Firemen got to Willow Dell in time to hold damages down, "below $100," according to company Chief Ralph Miller. Nothing but the corner of the cottage was damaged.

Marshalls Creek company had two other fire calls recently, Miller reported. One was at 12:45 p.m. Sunday at David Duke's, a resort near Marshalls Creek, where firemen were called to put out a dump fire. The other occurred at 12:55 p.m. Friday at Laurel Court where a leaky gas tank on a truck was apparently ignited by a spark. The fire was out when firemen got there.

Storm Forces Hiking Party To Vacate Camp

RAIN, wind and falling tree branches ousted a Newark, N. J. hiking party from its camp near Lake Lenape Sunday night.

There were 54 persons in the party but some of them had decided to stay in a Delaware Water Gap resort hotel instead of camping out. When the storm broke, local residents reported last night, the members of the camp were forced to find lodging in private homes in and near the borough.

"Something New Every Day"

Tuberculosis Not Fully Conquered, County Society Told

Speaker Notes Disease Rate Still High

AS OF THIS moment the conquest of tuberculosis is close, but too much of an illusion has been created, especially by the "wonder drugs," so that while the mortality rate of the disease is down the morbidity rate shows no signs of decreasing.

This was basically the message brought to officers, directors and guests representing 18 health, welfare and municipal bodies at last night's 35th anniversary meeting of the Monroe County Tuberculosis & Health Society. The speaker was Dr. Katherine R. Bucot, professor of preventive medicine and public health at Women's Medical College, Philadelphia.

Dr. Bucot, with Arthur M. Dewees, former executive director of the Pennsylvania Health & Tuberculosis Society were the principal speakers at the local TB society's anniversary dinner meeting at Glen Brook Country Club.

Dr. Bucot first praised the local society for adopting a sound program in public health, then making a budget rather than letting the budget dictate the program of public health.

Conquest Possible

She noted that while the meeting was one to celebrate an anniversary, that celebration had nothing to do with the conquest of TB. The conquest, Dr. Bucot said, lies within the realm of possibility.

One of the factors which confuses not only the laymen, but professional people, is the drop in mortality rate so that TB has been "crowded down the line because it is not a leader in the way of deaths," Dr. Bucot explained.

Too many volunteer and official agencies labor under the illusion created by a slackening death rate, she noted, in the face of a high morbidity rate for TB.

Even the "miracle" drugs with all their dramatic and thrilling experiences are in addition responsible for the illusion that TB is conquered, Dr. Bucot said.

Threatening Factor

A few years ago the consumptive was under a certain death sentence, but miracle drugs have eliminated much of that certainty. But, in these cases where excavating of the lung occurs, the patient feels fine, but is still a positive case of TB, because of excavation, Dr. Bucot explained. As such these people, although their sputum may be negative, present a threatening TB factor to the community. The patient, she noted, and many others, cannot grasp that in such cases he has a hole in his lung.

The confusion which arises in such cases of negative sputum where lung excavation exists, must be answered by continued effort, especially research, Dr. Bucot advised.

Dr. Bucot said the local TB society's installation of an X-ray machine in General Hospital is the finest source of case finding, not only for TB but other pathologies of the chest. Her experience, she said, shows lung excavation in older white men, seldom caught in normal X-ray programs.

Dr. Bucot said the programs against obesity are not good factors in general health improvement at all times, for often dieting leaves the patient susceptible to TB and other diseases.

Must Emphasize Threat

The speaker said a searching study of what is being done to meet the illusions about TB is required, including a check with physicians to be sure the potentials of TB are kept before them constantly — "to emphasize it's a disease right there with the rest of them."

Mr. Dewees traced his association with the state society back in 1918 and the visit he made here to help form the local society. That first visit was in 1919. Since that time, he said, TB societies have grown into the largest, single volunteer health organization — and the most powerful in the cause for public health — in the nation.

He presented a distinguished service award to Mrs. W. R. Levering, a director for 35 years, former secretary, and representative and director with the state society for ten years.

H. G. Heller, president, conducted the meeting and welcomed all the directors, officers and guests. Mrs. Bruce Fleming, executive secretary, introduced Dr. Bucot and Mr. Dewees.

Guests Introduced

Mr. Heller introduced Mrs. Wirt D. Miller, a guest and one of the founders of the organization and County Commissioner Amzi F. Altomose, Commissioners provide quarters for the TB society, as past boards have done for years.

Dr. Paul Shiffer filed with the group an accurate report on X-rays of hospital admissions on the TB Society X-ray machine. There were 463 admissions X-rayed, 26 pre-natal cases, 228 senior students.

In this total three active cases of tuberculosis were found and two growths. In all five cases the patient was unaware of their existence and in all cases proper steps have been taken to meet the pathology found.

Represented at the meeting were Pennsylvania, Lackawanna, Wyoming Valley and Eastern Northampton Health & TB Societies;

Accidental Drowning Verdict Given

DR. CHARLES Rushmore, Monroe County coroner, issued a verdict of accidental death by drowning in the case of Paul Brouton, 17, of Nazareth, who drowned at Saylor's Lake Monday afternoon.

Brouton was swimming from the lake dock to a raft 75 feet from shore when he suddenly sank into 21 feet of water, police said. His body was recovered by use of grappling hooks. Efforts to revive him with inhalation equipment and artificial respiration were futile.

The body was taken to Nazareth last night from Dunkleberger and Westbrook funeral home. Funeral services will be held at the youth's home Friday at 9 a.m., with requiem high mass in Holy Family Catholic Church, Nazareth, at 10 a.m.

Fire Damages Former School At Wooddale

WOODDALE — A small frame building, once used as a school building for Price Township, was extensively damaged by fire yesterday morning.

Reports indicate a Bell Telephone repairman passing along the Wooddale road noticed the fire and smoke and sent in an alarm.

Both the Northern Stroud Fire Department and Marshalls Creek responded. They saved the building from complete destruction, but flames destroyed most of the contents and severely damaged a portion of the exterior.

The property is owned by Emerson Meyers, Philadelphia and is used during the summer, holiday week-ends and during the fall season.

Fire department officials said the place was occupied over the Memorial Day holiday week-end. Cause of the fire was not determined.

We should all be prepared when the time comes — make your selection of a suitable Memorial now!

for this wide-open beauty

It's the new kind of hardtop—
The 4-Door Riviera!

THERE seems to be some confusion about what a hardtop really is, and we'd like to set the matter straight.

A hardtop is a car that looks like a Convertible with the top up—but has a solid steel roof overhead—and no center posts in the side window areas.

Up until just recently, it could be built in volume only with two doors—not more—because it would take wholly new structural principles to hinge another set of doors without floor-to-roof center posts.

But Buick came up with those new structural principles and is now building—in volume—hardtops with four doors.

You see one pictured here. It's the 4-Door Riviera. And it's taking the country by storm...

Because here, at long last, is an automobile with the sleek and sporty styling of a true hardtop—but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers, plus the added room of a full-size Buick Sedan.

On top of that, this beauty is all Buick—with the buoyant ride of Buick's all-coil springing—the walloping might of Buick's record-high V8 power—the whip-quick getaway and sizable gas savings of Buick's spectacular Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

And it's available in Buick's two lowest-priced Series—the budget-tagged 188-hp SPECIAL, and the high-performance 236-hp CENTURY, illustrated here.

Come visit us for a first-hand meeting with the 4-Door Riviera—and see how quickly and how easily the last word in automobiles can be yours.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Eisenhower Road Bill Defeat For Gore Measure Far From Bargain For Taxpayers

President Eisenhower's big-scale highway program has been dumped by the Senate, which substituted a plan sponsored mainly by Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee.

In the press dispatches from Washington, this has been reported generally as a defeat for the President, the sharpest setback he has been handed by Congress.

It is a defeat in more ways than one. The Senate rejected the program the President endorsed—largely, it appears, because the financing plan behind it was lacking in substance. The idea, worked out by the President's Advisory Committee on Highways, called for an independent Government corporation to handle the 10-year program.

This corporation would have sold bonds to raise its funds. But the only source of income it would have had for paying off the bonds was the Federal Treasury. Yet the legislation sent up by Mr. Eisenhower tried to pretend this borrowed money, somehow, would not be part of the national debt.

The Senate couldn't buy that kind of double talk deal. And in the sense that he didn't get something he asked, the President was defeated.

But the Administration will suffer an even more serious defeat, along with the taxpayers, if the Gore Bill becomes law.

This bill proposes to add more than 12 billion dollars to the Federal budget in the next five years.

But it doesn't provide any way of raising the money. Unless the House agrees to increase taxes to pay for these roads, this sum, in present circumstances, merely will be another huge addition to the perennial Government deficit.

In a word, it is a fine program to meet an urgent need—but the cost, with interest would be passed onto our children and grandchildren.

Sidetracked Military Reserve Bill Should Be Revived Before Its Too Late

House Republican Leader Martin says he still believes the Military Reserve bill, disgracefully sidetracked a week ago, can be revived and passed.

Even this cautiously optimistic note is hopeful.

The bill not only promised a strengthened Reserve force, but would spread the obligations of military service more fairly. Furthermore, failure of the House to approve it has thrown plans for cutting the size of the regular services into confusion.

The Reserve bill was beaten by shameful politicking and parliamentary tricks, not by the weight of the arguments against it. So there's been the hope all along the House would come to its senses and repair the damage it's done.

The future of this bill will be a revealing test of the quality of House leadership—on both sides of the aisle.

It's not too late. But it soon will be.

George Sokolsky Says...

Business Man Pursues His Own Judgment With Few Restrictions In British Isles

London — There are no laws governing banking in Great Britain. There is not a single act defining what a bank is or what it should do or how it should be operated. British banks do a world-wide banking business without anything like our Federal Reserve System or our State banking laws.

The Bank of England is chartered to do certain specific things and a few of the older banks have charters which give them privileges but place no particular restrictions upon them. The Bank of England issues the nation's currency.

There are no banking departments with hordes of inspectors to go over everybody's accounts to see that the bank is properly managed. No authority exists which can prevent a person from heading a banking firm. There are no little people prying into big affairs which are too enormous for their imaginations. There are no office-weary counsel to banking departments who conform to their small ideas as in our country. Here it is all done on the basis of a kind of co-operative confidence. Besides, if a man makes good he might get a title which is worth more than money.

So I asked what do they do if a bank gets shaky. I was told that they would hear about it in the Bank of England or in the Treasury and that sound men would get together to straighten things out. The bank would undoubtedly be rescued, if it could be, and there would be a change of management. But it would all be voluntary without force, without inspection, without a horde of bureaucrats.

It is the same with a business firm. The controls which we, in the United States, feel are absolutely necessary to keep men honest, do not exist here at all. The British, in that sense, avoid weakening their democratic processes by passing so much legislation that freedom is forgotten. The rule here seems to be that anyone can think of a new law but it is necessary? And if there is no necessity for it, the law is not passed.

I asked what would happen if a bank fell into the hands of a crook, and the answer was that if a man were really a crook he would have to show his hand and after that there would be nothing for him to do but to get out.

About 74 percent of the world's gold supply is mined in countries within the British Commonwealth, principally South Africa. Therefore, the gold market is now an open one in London, although the Gold Exchange is little more than a committee meeting. Nevertheless, it is an open market and gold is dealt in. The United States, with the largest hoard of gold in all the world, still does not permit trading in gold. It is hoarded at Fort Knox. No one here seriously advocates, however, the return to the gold standard. It would be altogether impossible unless the United States returned to the gold standard first and there is no sign of that. In such a matter the British would have to follow us. Nevertheless they have stabilized the pound down to the New York-London cross-rate of $2.80 to the pound and it stays there with no fluctuation. It is not likely that the position of the pound will improve or that any effort will be made to improve it. Nobody is in a hurry about that.

It is easier to understand the attitude of the British toward international affairs when one realizes that they have a voluntary but co-operative society. A business man pursues his own judgment with fewer restrictions here than in the United States. It is for this reason that so many Britishers believe that ultimately American firms will organize an increasing number of British companies through which to operate their export trade. They have groups of businesses here that operate together and some of our American-owned British companies may find ways of doing business that way. As one rides on the roads, a great many American-owned manufacturing plants are passed which already make their goods in England, not only for British consumption but for world trade. It is believed here that this trend will not only continue but will be accelerated as world trade becomes more free.

don't know what's going on. They never did. But now they can get into the disturbance."

My America

No People Ever Had So Much Yet Enjoyed Least

No people ever had so much and yet enjoyed so little real satisfaction as this present batch of people, says one O. A. Ohmann in the Harvard Business Review.

"Our economy has been abundantly productive, our standard of living is at an all-time peak, and yet we are a tense, frustrated and insecure people full of hostilities and anxieties. We have become masters of the physical world and have learned how to convert its natural resources to the satisfaction of our material wants. We are no longer so dependent on and so intimately bound to the world of nature."

"In a way we have lost our feeling of being part of nature and with it our humble reverence for God's creation."

That conclusion may or may not be altogether true but it's thought-provoking and well worth pondering for a few minutes.

Probably the truth is that human beings are just as dependent on and intimately bound to the world of nature today as they ever were. But their relations with it are more roundabout and so less obvious than they used to be.

Electrons, neutrons, amino acids, hormones and other such seemingly abstract things belong to the world of nature just as much as trees, livestock, sunlight, wind and rain.

Unfortunately they aren't as easy to buddy up to. Because they are harder for our bodily senses to grasp and fondle they don't inspire the emotional responses that make us feel that we and the birds and the bees and the flowers all belong to the same big, happy family. They lack the friendly warmth that would move us to weave them into our affections, our poetry and our folk songs.

Yet the fact is that most people nowadays live their lives much closer to unpicturable electrons and chemicals than to cows and corn. Millions of us depend on such relative abstractions for our livelihood and deal with them in our daily work with only the vaguest understanding of what they are or how they function.

Most of us can't even comprehend, let alone see or feel or smell or touch, the natural phenomena that affect us most these days.

That wasn't so true in the days when most people lived closer to the surface aspects of nature. Then they could plow the soil, plant the seed, harvest the crop, care for the livestock—and feel that their own decisions and muscular exertion were essential factors, along with the sun and the rain, in vital processes that meant something.

It is much harder for a man to achieve a sense of individual dignity and importance when he merely pushes a button or lever and sees wonderful things happen but is not quite sure why.

We're going to have to learn more nature in this modern garb before we can really feel we're part of it.

Try and Stop Me

Senator Barkley concludes his memoirs with this characteristic story about memory:

"It seems that a fine, healthy, husky baby was born in Kentucky. Its parents were inordinately proud of their new child, and they invited neighbors from all around to come and see it. Among the visitors was a 91-year-old matron, who approached the child, examined the baby carefully at great length, and finally, from the wisdom of her years, pronounced judgement."

"It's a fine baby, a splendid specimen," she said, as the parents and neighbors listened breathlessly. Then, leaning closer, to accommodate her tired old eyes, she added: "And—if my memory serves me correctly—it's a boy."

A Hollywood star tossed her pretty head impudently and confidently. "I'm leaving my husband. He makes me nervous, and causes me to lose weight. The minute I'm down to 112, out I march!"

Robert S. Allen Reports

Nelson Rockefeller May Succeed Mrs. Oveta Hobby

Washington, May 31 — Nelson Rockefeller is a strong likelihood as the next head of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

He is far out in front of the group being considered for a successor to Mrs. Oveta Hobby. Her publisher is gravely ill, and her departure from the cabinet is imminent.

Rockefeller's selection is still not final. But he is President Eisenhower's choice—barring some intervening development.

White House insiders are discounting the chances of another woman being named HEW chief. Women are on the list being deliberated by the President, but from the private intimations it would appear their prospects aren't promising.

These inner sources are significantly calling attention to the fact that Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor in the Roosevelt regime and first woman to hold cabinet position, was replaced by the late Lewis Schwellenbach. There is no connection between the two instances, but they are being tied together.

It is also indicated the President has discussed the following nationally-known leaders for the HEW portfolio: Paul Hoffman, board chairman of Studebaker Corporation and former head of the Ford Foundation. An original Eisenhower booster, Hoffman reportedly was offered a cabinet post after the President's election but declined for personal reasons. The President regards him highly and consults him frequently.

Dr. James Conant, former president of Harvard University and Ambassador to Western Germany. Conant has had extensive experience in the HEW field. Benjamin Fairless, recently-retired head of U. S. Steel Corporation, whom the President regards as an outstanding example of an enlightened business executive.

Three important factors favoring Rockefeller are: (1) His youth; he is 47; (2) his extensive government experience, which includes Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs in the Roosevelt Administration, Assistant Secretary of State and head of the Point Four program in the Truman regime; and (3) his first-hand knowledge of HEW as the first Undersecretary of that Department when it was created in 1953.

Rockefeller gave up this cabinet-rank office last winter to become a member of the White House staff as one of the President's special assistants. There was no explanation of this curious switch.

Unverified reports attributed it to "friendly" differences with Mrs. Hobby over policy and other matters.

Wrong Tactics — Treasury Secretary George Humphrey, an ardent bridge player and one of President Eisenhower's favorite partners, never passes up an opportunity to get pointers on the game.

A newsman learned this to his loss in the following incident:

He obtained an appointment to interview Humphrey about bridge playing in Washington. Humphrey's secretary, who maintains a stern watch on the former's schedule, told the reporter he had 15 minutes and then would have to leave regardless of whether he had finished or not. In the hope of circumventing this tight limitation, the newsman resorted to a stratagem.

He opened his interview by asking if Humphrey used a certain system when playing with the President. The Treasury chief said he hadn't, and asked for an explanation of it.

That was exactly what the reporter hoped for. Greatly elated at his success, he expounded at length on the particular bridge system and, for good measure, discussed another which interested Humphrey. Then, as the newsman got ready to question Humphrey, his secretary announced another caller.

"Your time has expired," the secretary briskly told the reporter. "You'll have to leave."

"But the interviewing just got started," protested the newsman. "All my time went to explain some systems to Mr. Humphrey."

"Sorry," said the secretary, "but that's your fault. Mr. Humphrey has an appointment at the White House, and he has to see several people before he goes there. He can't give you or anyone else any additional time, because he can't be late at the White House."

The reporter still hasn't got his interview.

Foreign Flashes — Marshal Tito will have a number of leading foreign visitors in June. In addition to the Russian VIPs who are visiting Yugoslavia, Burma's Premier U Nu is stopping there for a week—enroute to the U. S. He was invited to come to Washington to explain a plan to President Eisenhower on how to solve the Formosa problem. U Nu claims he has a peaceful solution of this explosive situation.

Sweden is in the throes of an inflationary cycle. The cost-of-living index has risen four percent since January. Most of the disturbing boost have been in food, fuel and household goods.

Highway Financing Comparison

—by H. G. Heller

The insistent demands of motor vehicle operator for more and better roads and the growing realization that the nation's road system is far behind requirements both in quantity and quality, makes interest in the recent Senate-passed Gore highway bill immediate to every citizen.

There have been so many controversial differences over methods of financing the proposed huge road-building program of President Eisenhower's, that a study of the Gore bill financing plan, compared with existing law on road financing should be of major interest.

Here are the two methods: Interstate system—Gore Bill: federal government to put up one billion first year, one and a quarter billion second, one and a half billion third, and two billion each in the fourth and fifth years with the states to match with one-ninth as much.

Present law: federal share 175 million a year, states 116 million.

Primary system—Gore bill: federal government to put up 400 million a year, matched 50-50 by states.

Secondary or farm-to-market system—Gore bill: federal government to put up 300 million a year, matched 50-50.

Mrs. Bush was marking the 50th anniversary of her own graduation from the Mount Airy School for the Deaf on Germantown Ave. in Philadelphia. That was on Friday.

Saturday her grandson, Richard Owens, Stroudsburg, got his bachelor of science degree from Susquehanna University.

On the same day her son—Joseph Bush, Bartonville—got his 14th diploma from an automotive carburetor technical training school.

Chess Tourney Nearing Close

THE STROUDSBURG Chess Club, meeting Thursday night at the office of President John Price, began winding up the contests in the Spring tournament.

Honors went to Joseph Kushner, who eliminated two rivals, Price and William Hay.

Kushner has only three tournament games remaining, one with William P. Deering and two with Rev. John R. Hoesman, who is Kushner's closest rival for club champion. Mr. Hoesman, with only two losses and one draw, stands a mathematical chance of winning the championship if he can defeat Kushner.

Deering and Stanley Stackhouse played off the two remaining games of their series Thursday night, both games going to Deering.

Louis Mondell, in a non-tournament game, defeated Bill Hay.

Lose weight on high protein LEHIGH VALLEY Irradiated VITAMIN D MILK diet!

Here's proof you can reduce comfortably with milk

"A diet based on milk really works because it's based on the scientific fact that the calories in milk are 'fortified', not 'naked' calories," says Dr. Herrell DeGraff of Cornell University.

"Foods contain calories, fuel that the body burns to furnish energy. Most of us eat calories in excess of energy needs — and they turn into body fat.

"Milk's fortified calories furnish protein, vitamins and calcium — all essential food elements — along with fuel value. Thus milk helps maintain your strength and vitality while reducing the fuel-fat intake.

"Diets built around milk are especially good for people over 35. Their energy requirements are lower, but their need for protein, vitamins and calcium stays high.

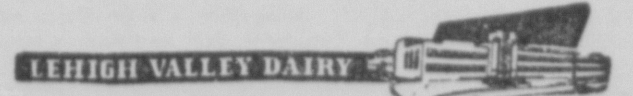

"No other food furnishes these as completely as milk, the complete protein food and the only practical source of calcium. That's why you won't feel draggy and knocked out on a milk diet."

Reduce with Lehigh Valley Milk! . . . It not only tastes better, but actually is better for you.

Rooney Wants U. S. To Name Vatican Envoy

By Robert S. Allen
WASHINGTON—A new effort is under way to have the U. S. exchange ambassadors with the Vatican.

President Eisenhower will be formally asked to do this. The request will be made to him personally by John Rooney (D., N. Y.), chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee, which has jurisdiction over the budget of the State Department and other major agencies.

Significantly, Rooney is conferring with the President at the suggestion of close friends of the President.

Foremost among them are: General W. Bedell Smith, former Undersecretary of State, ambassador to Russia, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and the President's Chief of Staff during World War II; and C. Douglas Dillon, ambassador to France.

Rooney, who has long sought the establishment of formal diplomatic relations with the Holy See, has been advised that the President "has an open mind" on the matter.

Gen. Smith indicated the President has not given the question serious consideration chiefly because it has not been pressed. Smith voiced the view that Rooney will find influential support among Administration leaders whose counsel carries much weight with the President.

The U. S. has not had diplomatic representation at the Vatican since the retirement of Myron Taylor. The one-time head of U. S. Steel was named by the late President Roosevelt as his personal representative to the Holy See, and was continued in this position by President Truman. But after Taylor gave up his mission, the Vatican let it be known to the State Department that a renewal of such a personal representation was not desired and that only an official diplomatic mission would be acceptable.

Truman manifested willingness to appoint an ambassador to the Vatican, but nothing came of the matter. Rooney now believes that action can be secured and he is being encouraged to discuss the matter personally with the President by the latter's advisers.

Note: Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S. C.) wants to put God into the Constitution. He has introduced legislation for this purpose. Says Ashmore, "Congress has voted unanimously to have a prayer room in the Capitol. Plans are under way to have 'In God we trust' stamped on all our currency and postage stamps. But there is no acknowledgment of the Supreme Being in our Constitution. Our nation needs an anchor. 'We the People' cannot lift ourselves by our own bootstraps, yet 'we the people' are the highest authority acknowledged in our Federal Constitution. There is an answer for Communism and all other moral and spiritual problems, and that answer is God."

BUSHKILL, the only entry in the Pocono Mountains Baseball League without a victory at this point in the schedule, will receive a badly needed shot in the arm next Sunday when Gene Plaza, Charley "Snook" Litts, Paul Hoffman, Curt Hickman and Tom Michaels report to the club. These five youngsters are currently key members of the East Stroudsburg High baseball squad that will battle for the District 11 Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association title on Saturday.

Frank Radler's brilliant pitching exhibition in two games over the long Memorial Day holiday brought praise from many points. The veteran hurler pitched 17 and one-third innings in two games and enabled the Strouds to increase their winning streak to four straight games in the Bi-State League. Radler pitched a four-hitter in nine innings against Blairstown on Sunday and then came back with a brilliant relief job of eight and one-third innings on Monday. Monday's 11-8 nod by the Strouds over Roseto, in 10 innings, was the latter's first loss of the campaign.

Moorestown, the newest entry in the Pocono Mountains League, held an 11-0 lead over Lake Harmony on Sunday going into the bottom of the seventh frame. But, Lake Harmony rallied to win by a 12-11 score in 10 innings. Eight of the winning markers came directly from home runs. Pitcher George "Dutch" Snyder blasted a grand slam homer and another four-bagger with one mate aboard. Frank Smith also homered in a winning game with one out on the base paths. There isn't an undefeated club remaining in the Pocono Mountains League at the present time.

Karl Weingartner, former three-letter athlete at Stroudsburg High and now ready to enter Lafayette College in September, returned to his shortstop berth with Tannersville, of the Pocono Mountains League, last weekend. Karl graduated from Fork Union Military Academy, Richmond, Va., last Saturday. "Bubba" Phillips, who once roamed the outfield for the now defunct Stroudsburg Poconos, hit his first home run of the season for Detroit on Sunday against the Chicago White Sox.

A Hawley High Junior by the name of Bob "Red" Lenert, who plays shortstop on the Hawley High baseball club, is drawing rave notices up Wayne County way. Lenert will hold down shortstop for the Hawley entry in the Wayne County League during the coming summer months. The youngster is reportedly only five feet, six inches tall, but has big shoulders and quick hands. Randy Morris, right fielder for the Strouds, currently leads the Bi-State League with two homers.

At least three Ivy League football coaches are expected to attend the Eastern Pennsylvania Scholastic Coaches Association Clinic to be held at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College the week of June 20. It is also quite possible that a truly outstanding personality may speak at the clinic's annual banquet, as several are now under consideration. The absence of the late Gerald P. O'Neill will be greatly missed at this year's banquet.

Les Woodling, Reeder's shortstop, is having a good season, although his club has won only one of six games thus far this season. The former Pocono High star capped the youthful campaign with six hits in six trips to the plate against Bushkill on Monday. The output included a double and five singles. Ray Steele, former East Stroudsburg High baseball and basketball star, recently walked the winning run across the plate as Hagerstown defeated Lancaster, 5-4 in a Piedmont League tussle. Ray, not charged with the loss, was the third Lancaster hurler of the ninth inning. Steele's record at the present time is no wins and one loss. He reports his ailing arm much improved.

Ted Wicand, former Slatingsville High hurler, is now pitching for Columbus, of the class "A" South Atlantic League. Everyone certainly must have been pleased with Bob Kuzava's showing for the Phillies against the Giants on Monday. Kuzava, who has late, is one of the finest guys in the game of baseball today. He's an easy going, modest guy with a carload of manners. A large crowd of East Stroudsburg fans will follow the Cavaliers on Saturday, regardless of where the final District 11 Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association playoff will be held.

Lumbermen Topple HLH In Little League

Winner Takes Over Lead In Standings

CRAMER LUMBER Co. shot to the top of the East Stroudsburg Little League standings last night with a convincing 18-8 verdict over Heller-Lloyd-Howell, at the circuit's official field.

The win was the second without defeat for the Lumbermen, while HLH has lost both of its outings to date.

Cramer's club took all doubt out of yesterday's battle bright and

The Lumbermen went on to tally single insurance counters in the fourth and fifth frames.

HLH tried desperately to change the tide of battle with a late flurry of two runs in the fourth, five in the fifth and one in the sixth, but Cramer's sluggers were too far in front to be caught.

The winning club banged out 18 hits and took advantage of six HLH errors.

HLH was held to six hits and was aided by three errors charged to the Lumbermen.

U.S. Retains Strong Bid

ST. ANNES, England, May 31 (AP)—Captain Bill Campbell, a voluntary bench warmer during the 1955 Walker Cup matches, was returned abruptly to that role today, but the United States retained a strong hand in the British Amateur golf championship with 22 survivors.

Campbell held himself out of the cup matches at St. Andrews, turning over the job of crushing the British to the other eight members of his team. Playing his first match in Britain over the tricky Royal Lytham and St. Annes course, the tall West Virginian lost, 2 and 1, to an unknown Briton, Reginald Pattinson.

It was truly an upset right off the fiction shelf. Campbell, runner-up to Australia's Doug Bachli in last year's championship, was one of the favorites although he still is recovering from badly burned hands.

Pattinson, a stubby little housemaster at the Royal Grammar School, High Wycombe, never had played in the British Amateur before although he had tried the open championship twice. But he putted masterfully today and won out with a gambling shot where he might have cracked up.

Although Campbell didn't make it, before the day was over eight Americans, including two Walker Cup team members, had reached the third round and four won their first round matches. In addition, seven who won their opening matches Monday and three who received first round defaults today weren't called upon to play.

First Time Pattinson, a stubby little housemaster at the Royal Grammar School, High Wycombe, never had played in the British Amateur before although he had tried the open championship twice. But he putted masterfully today and won out with a gambling shot where he might have cracked up.

Pirates Rally To Decision Dodgers, 6-3

BROOKLYN, May 31 (AP)—Boh Friend, the only Pittsburgh pitcher to hold a decision over Brooklyn this year, survived a rough fourth inning tonight and the Pirates rallied for a 6-3 victory over the Dodgers at Ebbets Field.

The cellar-dwelling Bucs tied the score at 3-3 when Dick Groat slammed a 2-run double and routed Brooklyn starter Clem Labine in the sixth inning.

Then George Freese singled home two runs with two out in the seventh inning to put the Pirates ahead to stay. Jerry Lynch hit his second homer of the year over the scoreboard in right in the ninth inning.

Ed Roebuck, who relieved Labine in the sixth, was the loser. It was his second defeat against two victories, while Friend was notching his third win against one defeat.

Dodger home run bats gave Friend some shaky moments in the fourth inning, when all the Brooklyn runs crossed the plate. After Duke Snider singled, Roy Campanella lined his 13th homer into the center field seats.

BANGOR—Bangor Yanks extended their streak to three straight wins in the State Belt Babe Ruth League with a 5-3 nod over the Bangor Browns here at Memorial Park last night.

Allentown Driver Honored As 'Rookie Of Year' At Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, May 31 (AP)—Bob Sweikert received $76,138.63 tonight from a record prize fund of $270,000 for his victory in the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race.

The winner's share was considerably short of the $80,496.96 pocketed in 1953 by Bill Vukovich, who collected the larger sum by virtue of $29,250 in lap prizes.

Sweikert's lap prize money was $12,900.

He received $46,000 from the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, $16,275 in awards from accessory firms and $863.63 as an entry fee prize.

The Indianapolis driver also was given the Chevrolet pace car, in addition to a number of other trophies, household accessories and tools.

Previous Mark The previous record prize fund second half title holder in a best of two-out-of-three series for the crown on the week of August 15.

Jack Mullins, president of the league, announced last night that practice for the Minor League, to be operated by Stroudsburg Playground, will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday.

Boys not picked by managers for the regular Little League are eligible for the Minor League, providing they are between eight and 12 years of age.

Since Minor League play won't start until the playground opens the latter part of June, Saturday will be reserved each week for Minor League practice and selection of players for teams.

Regular Little Leaguers are not eligible to attend Minor League practices.

The regular Little League opening day will feature a parade from in front of the Penn-Stroud Hotel. The parade will begin at 5:45 p. m.

Giants Clip Phillies In Ninth, 2-1

NEW YORK, May 31 (AP)—Davey Williams bounced a long single off the right field wall in the ninth inning to score Don Mueller and enable the New York Giants to defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1 tonight.

Until that point, ancient Sal Maglie and Philadelphia's Herman Wehmeier were locked in a tight pitching battle. In the end it was the 38-year-old Maglie who came out with his sixth straight victory, giving up but five hits.

Mueller opened the ninth with a walk and was sacrificed to second by Hank Thompson. Willie Mays popped out to Bobby Morgan and Wehmeier passed Dusty Rhodes intentionally to get at Williams.

Payoff Williams connected with the first pitch and slashed it on a line to right. It barely eluded the outstretched arm of Glenn Gorbous.

The Phillies, who had won eight of their 10 previous meetings with the Giants, got to Maglie for a run in the first when Richie Ashburn and Gorbous singled and Earl Torgeson sent the former across the plate with a sacrifice fly.

The Giants came right back in the third to tie it. Maglie got one of his infrequent hits. Wehmeier decided to try to pick him off first and threw wild. Maglie going to second. Whitely Lockman followed with a double to left, scoring Maglie and the game was tied.

Leader Signs Tax Measure

While the Senate was in recess until tomorrow and just before the House met tonight, Rep. Matt S. Anderson (D-Allegheny) handed a statement to newsmen, flatly declaring he will vote against the income tax.

Anderson said he and 15 other Democrats, whom he did not identify, will "stand like the Rock of Gibraltar" in their opposition to the income levy.

Anderson said this was no "political issue" with him, adding: "This is a matter of common sense and holding the governor to his word."

On the House floor, Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, said of Leader's plan to air his income tax plan in a series of television appearances:

"He hopes to build up enough demand from the public for increased spending that you will have to vote for his taxes in self-defense."

Traffic Deaths Over Memorial Day Weekend Total 368 For New Record; 130 Drownings

By The Associated Press

A record high number of persons died as Americans celebrated the three-day Memorial Day weekend—the first big holiday of the vacation season.

A late tabulation showed that between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight Monday 368 died in traffic deaths, compared with a former record high of 363 in 1952. There also were 130 drownings and 92 deaths from miscellaneous causes for an overall total of 590, also a record.

The total compared with 539 last year, when 362 died in auto accidents, 93 drowned and 84 died in miscellaneous mishaps.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, commenting on the high accident total, said:

"If that many people had died over the weekend in a nationwide epidemic, you can bet that the whole country would be taking frantic steps to see that it would never happen again."

"Well, these people did die from an epidemic—a highway epidemic. We might call it the three I's—Incompetence, indifference and irresponsibility."

"I think the cure for this epidemic is a bigger dose of the three E's—enforcement, engineering and education. Let's get excited about this record-breaking Memorial Day toll and see that it doesn't happen again."

The National Safety Council had estimated that at least 375 persons would die in weekend traffic accidents.

For comparative purposes the Associated Press surveyed the 78-hour nonholiday period from 6 p. m. May 13 to midnight May 16. During that time there were 294 traffic deaths, 58 drownings and 94 miscellaneous deaths for a total of 446.

Hoover Commission Opposes False Economy In Civilian, Military Research Programs

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—The Hoover Commission, which for years has been beating the drums for economy in government, shifted emphasis today and blasted any "false and misleading economy" in the nation's research programs, civilian or military.

Its criticism was directed at two specific phases of research:

1. Military weapons. The commission said U. S. weapons development is "not sufficiently daring and imaginative" in dealing with "radically new weapons and weapons systems."

2. Health. The commission said research work by the National Institutes of Health demands "greater federal support" but that the administration, by failing to plug for 7½ million dollars worth of research money from Congress, may have been showing "a tendency to de-emphasize basic and medical research."

The commission, a 12-member body headed by former President Herbert Hoover, stressed that it was talking about "weaknesses" in the federal research program but called attention, too, to the past "enormous accomplishments" of federal research.

Eden Moves To Cope With Strike Crisis

LONDON, May 31 (AP)—Prime Minister Eden's government tonight declared a state of emergency and seized special powers to keep open strike-torn Britain's rail and sea lifelines.

Eden summoned his new Parliament to meet June 9—a week earlier than planned—to help cope with the crisis.

With the Whitson day holiday over, the three-day-old rail strike finally disrupted the whole transport system. Along with a spreading dock strike, it threatened to choke off the nation's industrial boom.

The rail strike brought London and other major cities the worst traffic conditions they have ever seen. The capital was one vast traffic jam, with cars lined up bumper to bumper.

Many Thumb Rides

As offices emptied this evening, commuters by the hundreds of thousands queued for already crowded buses or subways. Thousands more thumb rides. Bowler-hatted businessmen sat on the backs of trucks, gravely reading evening papers as though it couldn't be more normal.

Young Queen Elizabeth II, as demanded by Britain's unwritten constitution, signed the emergency proclamation. Three members of the Privy Council—her advisers—flew to get the signature at Balmoral, the Scottish Highland castle where she is on vacation.

With the proclamation signed, Eden and his ministers announced 25 special regulations—emergency laws—designed to aid distribution of food and essential supplies such as fuel and materials for basic industries.

Sales Tax Bureau Penalizes 8,000 As Delinquents

HARRISBURG, May 31 (AP)—The state sales tax bureau has penalized about 8,000 delinquent retailers an additional 50 per cent for not forwarding tax receipts to the state.

Joseph C. Snyder, bureau chief, said that the 50 per cent penalty forms have been going out for the last two months but that there is no way to estimate how much additional revenue they may bring the state.

Under the one per cent retail sales tax law merchants who are delinquent more than two quarters can be fined an additional 50 per cent. Up until March, however, delinquents had been penalized only the 3 per cent commission they are allowed to deduct.

A merchant has 10 days to protest the penalty or to pay. If payment is not made the case is turned over to the Justice Department. Snyder said that upon receiving and checking an appeal against the penalty the bureau can decrease it.

Mauk Retires From Deputy Police Post

HARRISBURG, May 31 (AP)—Lt. Col. Jacob C. Mauk retired today after 12 years as deputy commissioner for the Pennsylvania State Police.

Mauk, a native of Sprankle Mills, Jefferson County, served 38 years with the force. His salary as deputy was $10,000 a year.

Col. Earl Henry, state police commissioner, said the matter of finding a successor "has been given consideration for sometime" but could announce no choice at this time.

Mauk rose from the ranks after being assigned first to the Greensburg barracks in 1917. He served also at Wyoming and Butler, returning to Greensburg as a captain in 1932.

In 1938, he was promoted to major and commander of Squadron 1, including western Pennsylvania. Mauk was promoted to lieutenant colonel and named deputy commissioner in 1943 and left Greensburg for Harrisburg then.

Cancer Case To Feature TV Program

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—A diagnosis of a patient suspected of having cancer will be heard and witnessed by television across the nation on the night of Wednesday, June 7.

It will be on the "March of Medicine" program, sponsored and produced by a drug manufacturing firm (Smith, Kline & French Laboratories) in cooperation with the American Medical Assn.

Surgeons at Walter Reed Army Hospital here will perform a preliminary operation on a patient suspected of having a malignancy. Then they will rush a sample of the suspected tissue via a mile-long pneumatic tube to the neighboring Armed Forces Institute of Pathology.

There, pathologists will examine the sample and report back their findings to the operating room. In examining the tissue, they will employ a microscope hooked up with a TV camera, so their report to the operating surgeons will be illustrated by views of the tissue as actually seen under the microscope.

The program is designed to depict the role of the pathologist "on the modern medical care team."

Educators Come Up With Four Suggestions That Should Ease Task Of Being A Parent

By Arthur Edson

WASHINGTON, May 31 (AP)—Any parent can get along with that rebellious teen-ager in his home, the National Education Association reported today.

All the parent needs, the NEA said, is (1) a shock proof constitution, (2) limitless supplies of patience, (3) an understanding of how adolescents grow, and (4) an ability to roll with the punches.

The association's views were set forth in a booklet called "It's High Time," with the subtitle, "A Guide for Parents of High School Students."

Cause Not Lost

An imposing list of scholars who helped prepare the booklet came up with a conclusion many a parent reached quickly, and without much research, namely:

That being a parent isn't easy. Still, in a day when the words "juvenile delinquency" are being tossed around like dice in a hot craps game, it's nice to know the NEA experts don't think the cause hopelessly lost.

First, the NEA puts some blunt questions to the parents. Are you a Nervous Nellie? Do you spend all your time worrying over what may happen to your darling, even if it's something simple, like a tryout for cheerleading?

Are you a bleeding heart? Why must my child spend so much time away from his dear family and home?

Are you a heavy chaperone? "Wants youngsters to bring friends home, but behaves like a private eye when he does so."

Are you a tab-keeper? "Wants a blow-by-blow account of everything the youngster does with his time. Not above delving into private diaries, school notebooks, personal mail."

Are you a superior being? You know it all, see, and you like to end arguments with "I'm your parent and you'll do as I say."

If you're any, or, possibly, all, of these, you may as well get wise to yourself. Your offspring has, long ago.

Stocks Close Mixed; Rails Show Strength

NEW YORK, May 31 (AP)—The stock market ended mixed today in a session marked by weakness in aircrafts and strength in railroads.

Gains ran to around 2 points in key divisions while losses extended to around 3 points.

The market began lower with the aircrafts quite depressed. They remained so all day. Improvement in the rest of the market commenced early, and near the close there was a showing of strength in railroads and in some radio-television issues. Airlines did rather well. With those exceptions, most of the market was mixed or slightly lower.

The Associated press average of 60 stocks was unchanged while the industrial component was off 50 cents, railroads were up 80 cents, and utilities were up 20 cents.

There were a few more losers than gainers in the list of 1,172 individual issues traded — 446 up and 463 down. Fifty-five stocks hit new highs for the year and 10 touched new lows.

Volume came to 1,990,000 shares. That compares with 2,220,000 shares traded Friday when the market was mixed.

The American Stock Exchange was mixed on volume of 630,000 shares as compared with 790,000 shares Friday.

Corporate bonds were irregularly lower. U. S. government issues in the over the counter market were slightly higher.

Memorial Day Services Held At Bangor

BANGOR—Rev. Richard Rettew, pastor of the first Presbyterian Church was the speaker at the annual Memorial Day services held in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Cemetery.

A small parade including borough officials, the Emyln H. Evans American Legion Post Drum and Bugle Corps, armed squads of the Sons of Union Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boy Scout Troop 102, and Brownie Troops preceded the ceremonies in the cemetery.

Roderick Happel, Bangor High School senior, recited "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," and Gloria Heard, another senior, recited "In Flanders Field" as part of the program. Two vocal numbers were sung by the Apollo Male Chorus.

of Bangor. The Washington Township School Band played the "Star-Spangled Banner" and "America." Rev. Harold Ulmer, of Ackermanville, gave the benediction.

LANCASTER, May 31 (AP)—Cattle 2,770, heavy rains slowed up trading of fat steers. Calves 540, good grades $22.00-24.00. Hogs 540, market was slow but prices steady, bulk of sales $19.50. Sheep 453, market slow and unchanged.
